and the University of Leicester

International Dual Masters Scheme

Maharaja Sayajirao University (MSU) and the University of Leicester welcome applications for the International Dual Masters Scheme.

This exciting opportunity allows you to benefit from learning in both India and the UK as part of your Masters degree, experiencing student life in the UK while gaining valuable skills that will enhance your employability. You will graduate with two Masters certificates, taking the first year of the degree at MSU Baroda, and the second at Leicester.

As part of the International Dual Masters Scheme, first year Masters students and graduating BA students about to begin a Masters degree at MSU may apply for an MA programme within the following departments at the University of Leicester:

- Archaeology and Ancient History
- Economics
- Education
- English
- History
- History of Art and Film
- Law
- Media and Communications
- Modern Languages
- Museum Studies
- Politics and International Relations
- Sociology

Current Masters students at MSU will be eligible for the International Collaboration Scholarship, carrying a partnership discount of 20% off the Leicester international student fee rate. The two best applications for 2015-16 will receive an international scholarship equivalent to a 50% fee discount. Early applications are encouraged to ensure that there is time for an IELTS test (if required) and a visa application. The application deadline is 31 July 2015.
